

What is an Adjustment?

A chiropractic adjustment improves alignment and movement of the spine, which promotes better function of the muscles and joints, the nerves and organs, and even the brain!

